Girls showed 'fantastic skills' in footy tournament

MORE than 150 girls from schools across West Lancashire descended upon JMO Sports Park for their Euro 2022 football tournament on Friday, June 24.

Organised by the West Lancashire Sport Partnership, the event aimed to encourage girls to take up football and get as active as possible while having fun with their friends.

Leader of the borough council Yvonne Gagen opened the event and talked about her previous career in women's football, having played for Wigan and represented Wales at international level.

Chris Hart, school games organiser for West Lancashire said: "It was great to see so many girls taking part, they were fantastic throughout and showed brilliant skills."

Their next flagship event is a Commonwealth Games event on Monday, July 11 at Edge Hill University when both high schools and primary schools will take part.

TAILBACKS SPARK CONGESTION FEARS OVER BRIDGE PLAN

Concerns over effects of reducing road to one lane after utility works cause traffic chaos in town centre

Report by Henry James

HEAVY traffic congestion in Ormskirk town centre caused by the temporary closure of one lane on Derby Street bridge has sparked fears that the same could happen if the bridge is made permanently one lane.

Traffic was restricted on the bridge due to emergency roadworks by Electricity North West, which caused long queues on other town centre roads.

Lancashire County Council plan to make the bridge permanently one lane next year and say the proposal is "based on detailed traffic modelling."

But politicians of all parties on West Lancashire Borough Council have voiced opposition to the plan.

Councillor Adrian Owens, leader of the Our

The Derby Street railway bridge in Ormskirk town centre.

West Lancashire group on the borough council questioned whether the county council "can so confidently predict no congestion for a future single lane Derby Street bridge when these temporary roadworks have so evidently resulted in congestion?"

Labour borough councillor Gareth Dowling said the county council was making a decision "based on flawed evidence."

He added: "The computer generated indicator bears no similarity to what we experience every time there is a single lane due to roadworks or even a vehicle parked up.

"There are multiple alternatives to the single lane approach. They could widen the existing two lanes and add pedestrian access on either or both sides, or replace the existing bridge altogether with one wide enough to accommodate two lanes and two footpaths."

Lancashire County Council say the proposal is "based on detailed traffic modelling, a tried-and-tested method of testing what impact any change to the roads will have on

Councillor blasts town's litter louts

Report by Henry James

LITTER louts are blighting Skelmersdale by deliberately discarding their rubbish around town... and leaving it for the Council and local volunteers to pick it up!

That's the view of Skelmersdale North Borough Councillor Neil Furey, who commented: "On the afternoon of Saturday, June 25, I attended Grimshaw Road subway and filled four bags of litter including a large amount of beer cans and bottles.

"The amount of litter in that subway and along the footpath was a disgrace and continues to blight our town.

"This Council and local litter picking volunteers have been making a great effort to keep our open spaces litter free and continue to show some pride in our town.

"The Council has also been providing new litter bins across the town and we have excellent refuse collection arrangements and a fleet of new refuse vehicles. Sadly, some people couldn't care less and "I will continue to condemn those litter louts who damage our town and our local environment by blighting it with litter."

Success for Prize Band at Whit Friday contest

SKELMERSDALE Prize Band took part in the Whit Friday 2022 contest and won four first places, two second places and one third place.

This meant they were crowned winners of the 'third section' championships overall in the Tameside contests. Musical director Ben Coulson said: "I am so proud of my band, and how hard they've worked in preparation for this contest.

"Whit Friday is a test of physical and mental stamina, and the only way you can succeed is by working as a team which we're consistently proving we do."

The band are currently enjoying a busy schedule of summer concerts and their next outing is the Ainsdale Show on July 2.

MP calls for care home residents to have legal right to meet loved ones

WEST Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper has written to the Health Secretary to highlight what she says is "the harm and misery caused to people isolated within the health and care system" and has called for his intervention.

In a joint letter to Sajid Javid, cross-party MPs from across the regions and nations have come together to ask for the urgent introduction of a legal right that guarantees contact with a 'care supporter' when it is required.

Ms Cooper said: "The rights of those in care settings to maintain contact with their loved ones are so important, and while there are some examples of good practice there is too much uncertainty and variability throughout the system."

"People using services and their families have told of harrowing experiences that separation has caused, in some cases residents were threatened with eviction notices for highlighting Government guidance."

The West Lancashire MP said: "The mental health impact on both those in care settings and their families is drastic, where barriers are put in place for them to see each other and provide support."

"A legal right of contact for those in care settings must be enshrined in law, and I am pleased the Minister for Care has committed the Department for Health and Social Care to keeping the need for legislative options under active review."

"We now need to see the Secretary of State act and bring forward legislation to support the right to contact, as championed by MPs from across the House including the Government's own party, and over 30 organisations including Mencap, Mind and Alzheimer's Society."

Navy veteran helps crew charity voyage by Dunkirk 'Little Ship'

Boat reached Portsmouth, though not without some help from the RNLI

Report by Henry James

A MAN from Skelmersdale was a crew member of a special voyage by one of Dunkirk's 'Little Ships' to raise money for veterans.

Tom Morrison, chairman of the Skelmersdale Royal Naval Association, was one of the crew of the Estrallita which set off from Norfolk in mid May and then travelled along the south coast.

The voyage was held to raise money for SSAFA - The Armed Forces Charity and the Jenny Lind Children's Hospital in Norwich.

The Estrallita was commandeered in May 28, 1940 sailed from Poole Harbour and then requisitioned on June 1, 1940 to take part in the evacuation from Dunkirk.

Tom was joined in the voyage by Estrallita's owner Tony Billson, and Michael Jack Hawkins.

Tom said: "Unfortunately, we were unable to make it to Plymouth due to the price of fuel, and because of the change in the weather."

"We did manage to get to the Dunkirk plaque unveiling at Portsmouth point and laid a wreath at the plaque in memory of the fallen.

"The trip has not been without its setbacks as we needed assistance from the RNLI shortly after leaving Poole destined for Lymington."

"We suffered steering failure and needed to be towed by the RNLI into Yarmouth harbour on the Isle of Wight."

"We managed to fix the problem the day after and were on our way again shortly after."

Tailbacks spark congestion fears over bridge plan

traffic." They added: "A computer-based model has been produced using real-life traffic surveys and information captured by cameras which monitor traffic levels on the bridge and in the surrounding area."

It came to the conclusion that "any impact on traffic by reducing the bridge to one lane would be very minor and would not have a significant impact on traffic as it crosses the bridge, or at junctions in the surrounding area."

County Councillor Rob Bailey, lead member for highways and active travel, said: "The emergency roadworks which were put in place earlier this week by Electricity North West are completely different, and cannot be compared to, the scheme we're planning for Derby Street Bridge."

"The reason we are proposing to change the traffic layout over Derby Street Bridge is to allow the footways to be widened to increase safety for pedestrians, and reduce the risk of a vehicle colliding with the bridge and endangering the railway beneath."

"Derby Street Bridge is Grade 2 listed, which means that it is not viable to replace, or significantly alter, the bridge without strong evidence that there is no reasonable alternative."

He added: "The ENW roadworks between Station Approach and Stanley Street prevented drivers from continuing onto Derby Street, resulting in more traffic having to stay on the one-way system, and causing longer queues at the traffic lights at Stanley Street, Moor Street, Knowsley Road and Wigan Road."

"The impact of these temporary works cannot be compared to our proposal for one-lane running over Derby Street Bridge, which have been tested using traffic models, and in practice, with a video showing traffic flowing quite freely during one-lane running available on the county council's website."

Lancashire County Council say work reducing traffic over the bridge to a single lane will not take place until next year "to minimise the impact on traffic in the town centre while work is taking place on the Ormskirk Eastern Gateway scheme."

This will involve the demolition of the old bus station and replace it with a new facility.

There will also be work on Moor Street to construct a new mini roundabout to replace existing traffic signals at the St Helens Road junction with Moor Street.

A toucan crossing close to the junction with Moor Street will then be installed with segregated cycle tracks and "improvements to the road and pavement to complement those on Moor Street."

Autism support shop opened in Concourse

Report by Henry James

AN autism support shop that supports young people has been opened in the Concourse Centre.

The store is run by the A World UK CIC, which is a non-profit organisation supporting young people with autism and their families through fully-funded holidays, away days and leisure activities.

The activities are funded through collection and re-sale of pre-loved items at its shops.

The A World UK CIC managing director Brad Thorpe said: "We are thrilled A World UK is expanding into new areas, which will allow us the capacity to offer our services to a wider autism community in Skelmersdale.

"Since opening the store, we have been overwhelmed by the generosity for the community donating items."

MP Rosie Cooper, who opened the store, said: "I was delighted to welcome the A World UK CIC to their new store in the Concourse.

MP Rosie Cooper at the opening of the A World UK CIC store

"For many young people a diagnosis of autism can cause additional challenges or hurdles as they grow up. Individuals on the autism spectrum deserve the acceptance and inclusion to engage fully in society, and their loved ones deserve support as they go above and beyond for their children.

"That's why I know this community store will be such a valuable resource, raising money for holidays and leisure experiences to give autistic young people and their families a safe and inclusive space to unwind."

Cost of living crisis blamed for decline in donations to animal sanctuary

WITH the cost of living rising at an alarming rate and the aftermath of Covid lockdowns, Woodlands Animal Sanctuary are beginning to feel the pinch following a rapid decline in donations.

The Holmeswood-based sanctuary is asking the public for help to cover some of their £5,000 a week running costs.

While the team are being as careful as possible with money and cutting costs where they can, there are some areas where that is just not possible.

Woodlands are currently in the midst of a baby boom with kittens and baby hedgehogs, which in turn brings added strain with the amount of milk and food needed to see them through, as well as the electricity it takes to keep everyone warm and healthy.

Animal care manager, Eleanor Davies said: "There are a lot of hidden costs that people don't realise when you think of an animal sanctuary.

"Food, bedding and veterinary fees are all obvious costs but there's also the electricity bills from keeping the cattery pens and hedgehog unit warm as well as gas bills to ensure we have hot water for washing food dishes and keeping hygiene standards at the best they can be. It all adds up rather quickly!"

The dedicated team are appealing to residents to support their work by contributing whatever they may be able to give.

A total of £3 a month will buy a full course of medication for a single hedgehog or feed a litter of growing kittens for a day. Woodlands also offer sponsorship packages and they have Carer for the Day experiences and as with all donations made, every penny goes towards the care of the animals.

They also have a lottery, run by Unity Lotteries, where people can play for just £1 and be in with the chance of winning £25,000 back.

Special Education Needs unit to be set-up at school

Report by Henry James

LANCASHIRE County Council cabinet has agreed the creation of a Special Education Needs unit at St Francis of Assisi Roman Catholic Primary School in Skelmersdale.

The cabinet has given final approval for the development of the unit, for up to 16 pupils at the school. It is anticipated that places will become available for pupils from September.

Special Education Needs (SEN) units are specially designed to cater for youngsters with additional needs.

Formal consultations were carried out by the council between March 23 and May 3 for St Francis of Assisi Roman Catholic Primary School.

A total of five responses were received, of which three people strongly agreed with the proposal, one agreed with it and another strongly disagreed.

One person wrote: "I believe it will benefit the school, children and community by having a well connected SEN unit within the school."

Another wrote: "I think that there is a need within the area for an SEN unit."

While another parent left the following comment against the plan: "I'm still trying to sort the mess they made out of my children's education and they're still failing my other child, do not put more children through this please."

The county council's Cabinet has also agreed the creation of a SEN unit at Fleetwood Chaucer Primary School, and St Augustine's Roman Catholic High School, Billington, near Clitheroe.

At the meeting, the results of the informal consultation to expand and increase the number of school places at Thornton Cleveleys Red Marsh School and Lostock Hall Moor Hey School were considered, and approval was given to start the formal consultation process.

Widowed urged to join friendship group events 'for just three minutes' to regain lost confidence

Report by Henry James

TO help widowed residents overcome the difficult first step of socialising again after loss Ormskirk & Southport Oddfellows, a local friendship group, is inviting visitors along to its events for just three minutes.

The unusual offer is based on the 'Three Minute Carrot Method', which gives people permission to stop or leave something after three minutes instead of feeling daunted by staying for an hour.

The technique was suggested to the group by Clinical Psychologist and author, Dr Jennifer Wild, who was asked for her advice on ways in which people can rebuild social confidence after losing a partner.

Judith Catton, social events organiser in Ormskirk & Southport said: "Trying something new can be nerve-wracking, especially if it's the first time an individual has really put themselves in a social setting without having their partner by their side.

"We'd obviously love people to stay for the entirety of our events, but we also recognise that people need to move at their own pace. So, if you decide that three minutes is enough for you that day, that's totally fine. If you want to stay longer, then that's great also."

Valerie Woolley from Birkdale, who has been a group member for more than five years said: "Going along to a meet a new group of people is easier said than done, especially when you are used to having someone support you.

"Once I got over the hurdle of first introductions any concerns just melted away, the Oddfellows couldn't have made me feel more welcome."

Ormskirk & Southport Oddfellows organises social events for its members across the area.

It holds regular coffee mornings/afternoons each month where newcomers are always welcome to come along and give it a try.

"We say ring or email us ahead of your first event to let us know you're coming, so we can explain exactly where we meet and we can welcome you," added Judith.

In addition to attending regular social events, Oddfellows members can access financial benefits and welfare support, with a dedicated care helpline and citizens advice team, and a travel club.

Anyone wishing to attend an upcoming event, or to receive a local events diary, contact Judith Catton on 01704 545279 or email judith.catton@oddfellows.co.uk

Escape from Skem! Friends must reach Penzance in 24 hours - without funds or food!

Report by Henry James

THE manager of Skem Men-Aces disabled football club and his friend have organised a fundraiser, which will see them travel from Skelmersdale to Penzance, but they must do it in 24 hours and with no food, water, or money and they will both be using wheelchairs.

Carl Eaton, 59, and Peter Walsh, 60, have modelled their challenge on the movie Escape From New York, calling it Escape From Skem and will be wearing convict outfits.

They will start from Skelmersdale on Saturday, July 9 and will be raising money for Skem Men-Aces and Carousel Music and Movement CIC, which was set up in 2021. Carousel's aim is to brighten lives through music and movement and to help people improve their health and wellbeing.

Peter, who works for Skem Express taxis and has been a friend of Carl's for 40 years, is not a wheelchair user but will using one in the challenge to raise awareness. DaVinci Mobility in Liverpool has provided him with a wheelchair for the fundraiser.

Carl wrote on Facebook: "We have no

Carl Eaton and Peter Walsh will take part in the fund-raising challenge plan and will be relying on human kindness. We have already raised more than £2,000.

"The fundraiser is the story of two desperate fugitives who escape from Skelmersdale in a bid to reach the safety of Land's End, Penzance. They need to get there in 24 hours, they have no food, water or money.

"It will be even more difficult for Peter, who is not a wheelchair user, but he wants to raise awareness of life as a disabled person and I sincerely thank him for that.

"All of the funds raised will go to support the Skem Men-Aces Disabled Football Club which I manage and this year we have decided to also support an incredible organisation called Carousel.

"Carousel's sessions are mostly aimed at people feeling isolated, mental health conditions, the elderly and adults with learning needs. Their Ormskirk adults with learning needs meet every Friday afternoon, learning about music and having lots of fun and a monthly disco. Their Southport adults with learning needs have had to be put on hold from December because they need more funding to continue. Also there are a lot of other sessions they want to focus on such as a wheelchair users only dance group.

"They have always wanted to do this as they did a 'pilot' project and it was phenomenal. Their other aim is to set up a local health and wellbeing music group and carry on working with the elderly and mental health services."

Youngsters celebrate cup glory after thrilling final!

SKELMERSDALE Youth are celebrating after winning the Skelmersdale Junior Football League Under 11's Group B final against Huyton Dallas Juniors.

This was a thrilling and feisty match between two very good sides, both playing some excellent football which went end to end.

Huyton Dallas appeared to be the more stronger side in the first half, but in the second, Skelmersdale Youth found their second gear and began to take stock of the game.

Huyton Dallas had two goals chalked off, one for offside and the other because the ball had just gone out before it was crossed to the Huyton Dallas Junior's striker.

Skelmersdale Youth continued to attack Huyton Dallas Junior's goal and all their hard work and skill paid off coming off eventual winners 2 - 1.

Goals were scored by Luiz Stalker and Max Parry.

A spokesperson for Skelmersdale Junior Football League said: "Credit goes to the young referee, Charlie Murphy who did well to keep the game flowing making some brave and excellent decisions."

Cooking bag made by social enterprise can cut your energy bills

‘So many people are facing hardship and we wanted to be part of the solution’

Report by Henry James

A SOCIAL enterprise in Skelmersdale has designed a cooking bag which could save people hundreds of pounds in energy bills.

The SewFab Thermal Cooking Bag has been designed and is being made by The Sewing Rooms organisation.

It has been designed to cut oven cooking times and so reduce fuel poverty and also help fight climate change. It reduces the amount of cooking fuel consumption by up to 70% with the potential to save people ‘hundreds of pounds per year in energy bills.’

The social enterprise say the SewFab thermal cooking bag is inspired by medieval ways of cooking, such as the ‘haybox method’ when pots of food would be brought to the boil and then placed in a box filled with hay or straw.

People use their ovens to cook casseroles for three or four hours a time not realising that ovens are among the most energy-demanding appliances in the homes. Aside from the fridge, the oven is likely responsible for the highest energy consumption out of all the kitchen appliances.

The SewFab Thermal Cooking Bag

People are now feeling the pinch and having to make choices about where they can save money - and staff at the Sewing Rooms say they want to be ‘part of the solution.’ They now want to raise funds to distribute The Sew Fab Thermal Cooking Bag to Food Banks and community initiatives across the country.

Sewing Rooms chief executive Paula Gamester said: “So many people are facing difficulties and hardship, and we wanted to be part of the solution.

“To hear that those people already struggling to feed their families sufficiently are now unable to heat the little fresh food that they do have access to, is heart-breaking.

“We hope through this campaign to raise a minimum of £5,000 to help us to distribute The Sew Fab Thermal Cooking Bag to Food Banks and community initiatives across the country we need your help to reach this goal.

“The more successful we are, the more SewFab Thermal cooking bags we can gift to our most struggling communities.”

The Sew Fab Thermal bag uses unwanted rolls/roll ends of textiles which are gifted to them by Lancashire based companies, The Senator Group and Panaz Fabrics.

To help the appeal, go to <https://crowdfunder.co.uk/p/sewfab-bag>.

Paula Gamester.

I'm on first name terms with these roadside weeds!

Once again West Lancashire Council has failed to act on their words when they tell us that they clean and sweep all vulnerable areas once a day and other areas every other day.

Well as you can see with these photos of Springfield Road, Aughton, it has not been cleaned or had weeds removed or the overgrown hedgerows cut back for many months.

I am now on first names terms with some of the older weeds as I pass each morning!

Springfield Road is one of the entrances into Aughton, what impression can it give to visiting would be residence and visitors to the area when approaching via Springfield Road.

I wonder when West Lancashire put out their 'propaganda' they really think that us, their council tax payers, believe them. I'm sure everyone knows the answer.

David Palin,
Aughton

The overgrown roadside hedgerow in Aughton.

Grass verges should not be left uncut

In regards to the previous letter stating that grass verges should be left uncut, I couldn't disagree more.

I agree that wildlife should be protected but not cutting the grass verges could cause more damage than good.

It could cause more wildlife getting hit or killed by cars, which could also lead to road accidents by drivers trying to swerve out the way.

Also, if the grass verges are left to grow wild it will become more of litter ground.

This will become damaging to the wildlife and bring rats into local estates.

Not only will not cutting the grass verges become unsightly it could also be damaging to the people of this town, who will lose their jobs.

Skelmersdale is surrounded with wooded areas that protect wildlife and their natural habitats.

However, it is important to maintain the grass verges, it keeps people in a job and is also cleaner and better for the environment.

Lisa Bennett,
Skelmersdale

Thank you for helping me after my fall at health centre

I had to go to Tarleton Health Centre on Tuesday, June 14 and on my way out I fell over and cracked my head on the pavement.

When I woke up there were two ladies who were there and they told me that an ambulance was on its way.

One of the ladies worked at the practice but I don't know who the other one was.

I just want to say thank you to her.

Her name was Ingrid and she was maybe aged between 50-60.

I have left my contact details at the surgery for Ingrid so if she wants to get in touch with me she can call me and I can tell her thank you.

Tony Diss,
Tarleton

Diamond Joe keeps our lawn clean and tidy!

In response to the brilliant letter from Mike Brown regarding grass verges being left uncut for the sake of our wildlife, I'd like to draw attention to my great neighbour Joe.

Joe is a keen gardener and always keeps our shared garden in Welbourne cut and tidy.

It is a big stretch of lawn shared by four pensioner bungalows.

He makes sure our bees and insects also get to share it.

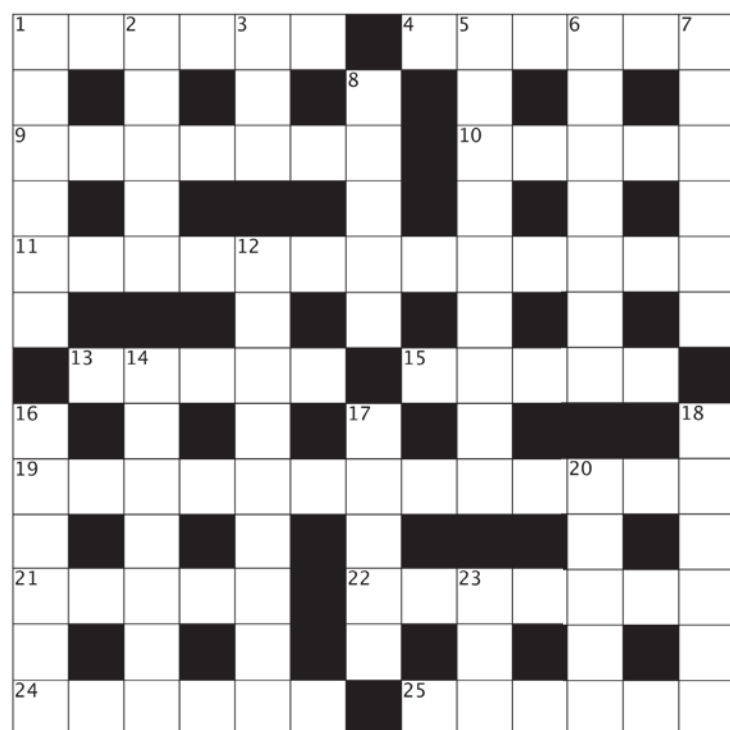

What an example for others!
Thanks Joe, you're a diamond!

Keith Mason,
Skelmersdale

The West Lancs District Schools Under 11 girls team after winning the Lancashire cup

Cup success for girls

WEST Lancs District Schools Under 11 girls team have won the Lancashire cup.

They beat Preston 6-3 in the semi-final and then played Blackburn and Darwin in the final at AFC Darwin on Thursday, June 16.

The West Lancs girls won 2-1 with a late winner in a very close game.

The under 11s also had the opportunity to play at Goodison Park in May contesting the Everton Plate against Knowsley ending the competition as runners up.

Benches tribute at memorial

SPECIALLY crafted benches paying tribute to those who served in the First and Second World Wars have been installed at Up Holland's War Memorial.

One of the benches shows soldiers in battle in the Great War while the other is dedicated to those who served in World War II and features armed forces in combat, with fighter planes flying overhead. A dove of peace is also part of the design.

Funding to pay for the benches came through the Neighbourhood portion of the Community Infrastructure Levy (CIL) funding attributed to Up Holland parish as a result of new development in that area.

CIL is a levy charged by the Council on applicable new developments in the borough.

Councillor Yvonne Gagen, leader of West Lancashire Borough Council, said: "I am so pleased that this funding has been used to create such a beautiful tribute to those who served in the World Wars. Come and see them for yourself and take some time while you are at the war memorial to reflect on the service given by our armed forces."

The Borough Council's Armed Forces champion, Councillor Andy Fowler, added: "These incredible benches are a poignant reminder of the great sacrifices those who fought in armed conflicts across the years have made so we could live freely today."

The funds have also provided a specially designed waste bin at the memorial and another bench in celebration of the Queen's Platinum Jubilee on Vicarage Corner in the village.

The two benches and litter bin now installed at Up Holland War Memorial

Rankin holds on to see Ormskirk avoid defeat

HARVEY Rankin scored 64 not out to ensure Ormskirk drew their match with Newton le Willows at the weekend.

Ormskirk had looked to be heading for defeat after Newton le Willows had scored 243-5 declared in 54 overs.

Opener Ben Walkden scored 107 not out to anchor the Newton le Willows innings with Rizwan Haider scoring 64 while Sam Marsh and Zahir Shehzad took two wickets each.

Ormskirk's innings never really got going with Afaq Ali Sartaj claiming three wickets and then remarkably, two run outs, left them on 137-8 at one stage and seemingly heading for defeat.

But Rankin would not be dislodged, batting for 101 balls, and Scot Lees held out for 34 balls, for the innings to finish on 160-8 after 43 overs.

S&B lost by 99 runs to top of the table Wallasey when they were dismissed for 133. Wallasey opener Daniel Beaver scored 100 not out and number four batter Josh Rylance 66 in a total of 232-3 declared off 44.0 overs with Basil Sultan taking the three wickets.

S&B's reply got off to a disastrous start when Isaac Lea was run out for a duck.

Fellow opener JJ Fielding scored 50 and put on a 55 run third wicket partnership with Jack Stanley (27).

But Fielding was dismissed by left-arm spinner Sumit Ruikar who went to take seven wickets for 54 runs as S&B were all out well short of the target in 39.4 overs.

The defeat left them third from bottom of the Liverpool Competition Premier Division table.

Elsewhere in the Premier Division Formby lost by five wickets to Rainhill, New Brighton beat Leigh, Orrell Red Triangle drew with Northern and Wigan drew with Birkenhead Park.

NEWS DESK • 01704 392 400
www.champnews.com

The star of the show was... a 1990s family saloon!

BMW's new M3 Touring had better take a step back. So too should Ferrari's SF90 Spider. The undoubted star of the Goodwood Festival of Speed was.... a 1990s family saloon that just happens to cost half a million quid.

For all the horsepower on show at Britain's highest profile celebration of high octane machinery – including a 30th anniversary celebration of Nigel Mansell's F1 championship win – the car that got most tongues wagging was ostensibly an old Subaru Impreza. If you aren't fluid in petrolhead this would be a bit like your dad stepping into the ring and knocking out Tyson Fury, but it really did happen. Only this time, it was your dad with Marvel-esque superpowers.

The Prodrive P25, built by the same Oxfordshire company that created Subaru's rally cars, is a recreation of the 22B, the fastest, hairiest Impreza of them all – except that it's harder, faster, more aggressive. I was a 12-year-old when the original Subaru Impreza 22B came out – and this actually looks like an Impreza that a 12-year-old would draw. It's still an Impreza, but every detail is that little bit more extreme than Subaru ever envisaged.

Yes, underneath it's a 24-year-old Japanese car but the boot, bonnet, roof, sills, bumpers, and the stop-me-officer rear wing are all made of carbon composite to ensure it weighs roughly the same as a Ford Fiesta. It still has an Impreza's flat-four engine too, but as it's now churning out 400bhp and has the same launch control you get on the latest World Rally Championship cars, it'll hit 60mph in 3.5 seconds. It looks the part too, because all of the cosmetic tweaks are courtesy of the same man who styled the McLaren F1. The price of the Impreza that until now only existed in the back of my high school maths book? £460,000. Plus VAT.

That is, to save you doing the maths, £552,000, or 19 brand new Subaru XVs. It's also three times the cost of a showroom fresh Ferrari Portofino and – if we're being really pedantic about Japanese performance metal – twice the price of a Subaru Impreza 22B, the rally-inspired classic that the new P25's based on. Not that Prodrive's going to worry about the price putting potential buyers off, seeing as it's only building 25 of them.

Apply any kind of logic and asking half a million quid for a re-imagined Subaru is bonkers – but then selling bits of canvas with some artily-applied brush strokes on them at millions of pounds a throw doesn't really add up either. Car nuts aren't logical creatures, which is probably why watching a cartoonishly beefed-up Subaru Impreza blatting its way up the hill at Goodwood seemed to capture everyone's imagination this year.

I know it makes sense and I'll never, ever be able to afford one, but I'm glad the P25 exists somewhere other than my high school maths book.
